

Hoyt S. Cheramie, DVM, MS, DACVS

- BS in Dairy Production Science, LSU, '90
- Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, LSU, '93
- Private Practice (Mixed Animal) in central Kentucky, '93-'94
- Large Animal Internship, University of Tennessee, '94-'95
- Large Animal Surgery Residency, VA MD Regional CVM, '95-98
- MS in Veterinary Medicine, VA Tech, 1998
- Clinical Instructor, VA MD Regional CVM, '89-'99
- Board Certified by the American College of Veterinary Surgeons, 2000
- Performance Horse Medicine and Surgical Practice, '99-'07
 - North of New Orleans, LA
 - Northeast of Atlanta, GA
 - Northwest of Chicago, IL
- Joined Merial in February 2007 as Eastern United States Veterinary Professional Services, Equine Manager
- Currently Senior Equine Professional Services Veterinarian at Boehringer Ingelheim

Professional interests include surgical and post-operative management of colic and performance limiting problems such as subtle lameness and gastric ulceration syndrome as well as guttural pouch disease and equine podiatry.